Boast.AI is Your SR&ED Hub

Boast.AI gathers data from your tech and financial systems to prepare your SR&ED claim proactively throughout the year. Our experts and algorithms estimate your accrued ITCs on a quarterly basis to give you access to your refund now - 12 to 16 months early.

“Boast.AI enabled our executive team to focus on building our business instead of chasing SR&ED. They saved us countless hours of pain, guiding us through the process and putting together everything. We received 100% of our claim with minimal headache, including a full audit. Highly recommend every tech CEO take a close look.”
